

G. O. P. CONDEMNNS WILSON PLANK

COUNTRY SAVERS TO BE PRESENTED TO G. O. P. TODAY

NOMINATION SPEECHES ARE TO START IN CONVENTION
LATE THIS AFTERNOON.

ADJOURNS UNTIL 4 P. M.

Convention Is In Session Only Thirteen Minutes This Morning and Adjourns to Hear Report of Resolutions Committee.

By United Press Leased Wire
Coliseum, Chicago.—The republican convention today will proceed at once with nominating speeches.

However, it was explained by the parliamentarian that a two-thirds vote is necessary to suspend the rules and go ahead with the nominating speeches.

Miller assured Gillett and other delegates it would be done, however. He also said the sub-committee of the resolutions committee had reached a tentative agreement on the platform but that it would take some time to get the report in shape.

A few minutes before Miller gave this information to Gillett, another official said no attempt would be made to start nominating speeches unless all agreed to such a step.

The convention convened for 13 minutes today, then recessed to give the resolutions committee time to go over the platform draft prepared by the sub-committee and agree on it.

Senator McCormick, representing the resolutions committee, appeared beside Chairman Lodge on the rostrum and delivered the message from the committee, saying the sub-committee had reached an agreement, including a league of nations plank. He asked for adjournment until 4 p. m.

There was loud objection to such a course.

Addressing the convention, McCormick said:

"The members of the whole committee will consider the draft line by line, and will have opportunity to offer amendments."

The speakers were very reluctant to leave the building. Evidently hundreds of those in the galleries considered they had not "had their money's worth" and remained standing, making no move to depart. Even the delegates were in no hurry. Five minutes after adjournment had been declared there was no perceptible move toward the exits. As the band neared the close of the "Stars and Stripes Forever," however, the people began slowly turning toward the doors.

The movie men took advantage of the situation and took many feet of film.

APPLETON PEOPLE WILL TAKE FRESH AIR KIDDIES

People of Appleton are showing a keen interest in taking undernourished children from Milwaukee into their homes for a two weeks' vacation beginning the second week in July. The children are sent out by the Big Brothers and Sisters' association of Milwaukee to the homes of people in any of the smaller cities and communities of the state.

The health department of the Appleton Woman's club has charge of securing homes for as many children as Appleton can provide for. Members of the committee have set their goal at fifty. Any one wishing to take one or two children may notify Mrs. H. E. Nicholson, 504 John street.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary society is to take place at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the First Methodist church. The national organization was started June 8, 1880.

The Queen Esther quartette will open the program with a selection. Mrs. L. B. Wood will speak on "Our Birthday," and Mrs. A. E. Rector on "Our Growth." Miss Florence Corey is to give a piano solo. Queen Esther Circle will follow with a playlette, "Thanksgiving Ann." A talk on "National Impressions" will be given by Mrs. A. J. Benjamin. Mrs. Edith Wright will conclude the program with an address on "Our Birthday Gift."

The regular meeting of the society will follow the special program. A sermon dealing with the anniversary was given by Dr. I. B. Wood Sunday morning. The Appleton society has 100 members.

The annual meeting of the Community Lecture course is to be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Election of officers will take place and directors will be appointed.

CARDINAL PRAYS

Cardinal Gibbons Opens Convention Session With Plea for Help in Selecting a Candidate

By United Press Leased Wire
Coliseum, Chicago.—James Cardinal Gibbons, Baltimore, opened Thursday morning's session of the Republican national convention with the following prayer:

"We pray Thee, God of might, wisdom and justice through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted and judgment decreed, vouchsafe to inspire Thy servants, the citizens of America to elect a chief magistrate whose administration will be conducted in righteousness and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom he shall preside, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion, by a faithful execution of the laws and justice and mercy, and by restraining vice and immorality."

"May Thy people always realize the truth of the inspired maxim that 'righteousness exalteth a nation but that sin maketh a people miserable.'"

"Grant, O Lord, that the administration of the new chief executive may rebound to the spiritual and material welfare of the commonwealth, to the suppression of sedition and anarchy; and to the strength and perpetuity of our civil and political institutions."

"Grant that the proceedings of this convention may be marked by a wisdom, discretion, harmony and moral forbearance worthy of an enlightened and patriotic citizenship."

Senator Lenroot
DARK HORSE RACERS

WISCONSIN LEGISLATOR STANDS
EXCELLENT CHANCE OF WINNING G. O. P. NOMINATION.

Chicago.—Senator Irvine L. Lenroot seems to stand as good a chance of being nominated for president by the republican convention as any dark horse in the field.

I make this statement fully aware of the fact that Senator Lenroot is not now and never has been a candidate for the presidency.

One of two things will happen with respect to his position when the battle of ballots begins at the Coliseum. He will become a formidable candidate for the highest office in the nation or he will have no more than scattering support, which would come from delegates who insist that he is their preference.

Should he flash to the front it is believed that some of the La Follette delegates will be swayed rather by state pride than factional bitterness and vote for him. Senator Lenroot seems to have as good a chance as any other dark horse because the favorite dark horse has not been picked and may not show up as the best bet until it is determined that the balloting will develop a deadlock.

Has Strong Backing.

The movement for Lenroot originated in the east and the west. It has strong backing. That the Wisconsin senator is not at this moment first among the dark horses is due to the fact that he has restrained persons eager to give him this prominence. Wisconsin men familiar with what is transpiring believe that of the big three the trend is slightly in the direction of Gov. Frank O. Lowden, although Gen. Leonard Wood is considered a close second.

Many impartial observers, among them the keenest political writers in the country, do not believe that Senator Hiram Johnson will win unless his friends stampede the convention and there is much to indicate that the great mass of delegates are not of the type easily stampeded.

Johnson's candidacy has been hurt because it has developed into something of a street show, also because it has the enthusiastic support of democratic newspapers which threaten a republican bolt if Johnson is not named.

No Dark Horse Picked.

Should the convention become deadlocked, republican leaders will turn to some dark horse to unite the party. It is true that consideration has already been aside from avowed candidates, given to men who seem to measure up to the great office of president, but it is equally true that party leaders have not settled on their first choice among the dark horses.

RELIGIOUS WORKER
ADDED TO "Y" STAFF

Joseph E. Dennison of Merrill is to be added to the Y. M. C. A. staff next month as office and religious work secretary. He will take a course of training at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake Geneva and expects to arrive here July 24 to assume his new duties. It is planned to push the religious activity more than ever during the coming season. Mr. Dennison has had wide experience as a Sunday school worker and has been an active figure in Y. M. C. A. camps.

Atorney H. H. Pelkey has completely recovered from an operation for appendicitis and resumed his practice today.

G. O. P. Outlines Policies On Which Party Will Fight

Sub-Committee Complete Draft of Platform With Exception of League of Nations and Mexican Relations Planks

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—The draft of the republican platform as prepared by the sub-committee of the resolutions committee, for presentation to and approval by the full committee, has been completed with exception of the league of nations and Mexican relations planks, it was learned today, and contains the following provisions:

The Wilson administration: The administration's conduct of the war is indicted for "inexcusable failure to make timely preparation." This plank will charge that "vision, leadership and intelligent planning" for a return to peace have been lacking in the administration. The republican party, it asserts, "will resist all attempts to overthrow the foundations of the government," whether made "in the form of international policy or of domestic agitation. Republican congressional achievements, which are enumerated, were made, it is declared, in the face of "vindictive vetoes" by President Wilson.

Prohibition: The only mention of prohibition in the sub-committee's draft is: "If the republican congress provided for enforcement of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution."

Want Labor Mediation

Labor: The proposed plank recognizes the justice of collective bargaining and declares for government initiative to reduce the frequency and limit consequences of strikes and lock-outs. It declares the principle of the Esch-Cummins law for strike settlements should be applied in modified form to public utilities. In private industry, the proposed plank favors utilities. In private industry better facilities for voluntary mediation. No reference is made to general prohibition of strikes or Governor Allen's Kansas industrial court idea.

Blame Democrats For H. C. L.

High cost of living: "We decline to deceive the people," this proposed plank said, "with vain promises or quick remedies." It blames the fiscal policy of the democratic administration for present conditions and pledges the party to earnest and consistent attack on the high cost of living by avoiding further inflation through governmental borrowing, by deflation of the currency and credit, by provision of unreasonable profits, public economy and revision of "war imposed taxes unsuited to peace time economy." It condemns failure to enforce impartially laws against profiteering.

Taxation: The people are warned not to expect early tax reductions, because of present governmental debt and obligations. It advocates simpler tax laws and simplification of the income tax return.

No Bonus Promised

Soldier bonus: A pledge to discharge to the fullest the obligations of a grateful nation justly should fulfill without specific promise of bonus legislation, is in this proposed plank.

Woman suffrage: Republican governors whose states have not yet acted on the suffrage amendment are urged immediately to call special legislative sessions for that purpose.

The farmer: Government regulated, co-operative marketing plans are encouraged. Scientific study of agriculture prices, a national inquiry on coordination of transportation to facilitate food distribution, encouragement of export trade in farm products are advocated.

Condemn Budget Veto

National economy: Declaring only "stubborn refusal" of the administration to co-operate prevented greater government expenditure reductions for 1920-21, the plank pledges the party to "a carefully planned readjustment of the government, rigid economy, better co-ordination of governmental agencies and elimination of needless employees."

The budget: President Wilson's veto of the Good-McCormick national budget bill is condemned.

Presidential war powers: Severe condemnation is heaped upon President Wilson for retaining war powers which, the plank says, show his "determination not to restore to the states and nation the form of government provided for by the constitution."

Banking and currency: Banks are urged to give credit preferences to essential industry. The federal reserve system, the plank says, should be free from political domination.

Good roads: Liberal good roads appropriations are advocated in co-operation with the states. Summed in taxation to states having forest reserves should be taken into consideration in determining the apportionment of federal aid, the plank said.

Endorse Railroad Law

Railroads: The Esch-Cummins law is endorsed. Government ownership and operation or employee operation is opposed.

The belief is expressed that private ownership and operation under proper regulation and control is more efficient. The plank adds: That "fair return" upon actual value of railroad property should be made "reasonably sure," with fair hours, favorable working conditions and wages to employees.

WILL TRY TO FORCE ACTION ON G. O. P. PLATFORM TONIGHT

LONG NIGHT SESSION IS IN PROSPECT IF FIGHT DEVELOPS ON COMMITTEE REPORT

TODAY'S MEET IS BRIEF

Adjournment Is Taken Immediately After Announcement That Committee Had Reached Decision of League Platform

By United Press Leased Wire
Coliseum, Chicago.—Every effort will be made by those directing the procedure of the republican convention to force final action on the platform tonight. Will Hays, chairman of the national committee, said this afternoon:

A long night session is planned in case a big fight develops against the platform as outlined by the resolutions committee. Hays indicated, but stated that the unanimous report on the planks ought to shorten the meeting.

The first ballot, he said, probably will come late tomorrow afternoon.

(By Hugh Baillie.)

Coliseum, Chicago.—Chairman Lodge called the third session of the republican national convention to order at 11:18 a. m.

There was some confusion before order was secured. Lodge announced that Cardinal Gibbons would offer prayer. The cardinal came to the front of the rostrum and read his prayer, in a voice which was light, but easily heard. He wore his red robe and a red cap and the emblematic ring of his office upon the fourth finger of his right hand.

Chairman Lodge stood at the right side of the cardinal as he prayed.

The vast crowd stood in silence during the prayer with bowed heads.

Immediately after the cardinal's prayer, Lodge announced that Senator McCormick would report from the committee on resolutions.

McCormick said the committee on resolutions commissioned him to make a report to the convention and to submit to the convention a resolution.

"I have to report that the sub-committee unanimously has agreed on the text of a platform including the paragraph dealing with the treaty of peace."

Lodge put the question and there was an overwhelming yell of noes but the noise came from the audience.

"The chairman is in doubt," said Lodge and asked for a standing vote. He declared the ayes have it, and the convention was declared recessed until 4 p. m.

California, Ohio, parts of Illinois and several western delegations opposed the request of the resolutions committee for a recess. The "old guard" strongholds in Pennsylvania and New York and other eastern states were solidly for it.

MERCURY CLIMBS UP TO
93 DEGREES THIS NOON

With summer officially 10 days away, Appleton people sweated under the intense heat which suddenly hit the city. Today was the hottest day of the year. The thermometer registered 86 in the shade at eight o'clock this morning. The mercury gradually climbed to 93 degrees at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The usual thirst quenchers were missing, although there was plenty of wishing that they would come back. Ice cream parlors and other refreshment centers found business taking a decided spurt. Electric fans were resurrected from their winter recess and put into action.

Today's weather prediction promises sunnier and cooler temperature.

DARBOY VETERANS TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Darboy.—The next monthly meeting of the American Legion will be held at Ashauer's hall Monday evening June 14. Arrangements will be made to attend the convention at Green Bay June 28-30.

Arrangements are being made by the Sisters of St. Francis who have charge of the Holy Angels School to hold a picnic Sunday June 13 for the benefit of the school. There will be amusements of all kinds. Refreshments will be served on the school ground.

UNFILLED TONNAGE OF STEEL CO. INCREASING

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation totaled 19,910,468 on May 31, an increase of 580,719 over the previous month. It was announced here today.

Unfilled tonnage on April 30 was 10,359,747, and on March 31, it was 19,902,981.

DEMOCRATS START BOOM TO NOMINATE GENERAL PERSHING

A. E. F. COMMANDER IS INVITED TO ATTEND DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN SAN FRANCISCO.

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—A dark horse boom for General John J. Pershing for the democratic presidential nomination was set in motion here today.

It was announced that Edward E. Coltra, national democratic committeeman from Missouri, is in Washington today to invite General Pershing to attend the San Francisco convention as a guest of a big Missouri delegation, on a special train. Pershing is a native of Missouri and the men behind this movement claim that he is eligible for nomination as a democrat, although he has no definite party alignment.

The Coltra party has arranged to invite prominent native sons of Missouri and it is stated that among these Secretary of State Colby has already accepted. Augustus Thomas, a playwright and author, also a Missourian, it is said, will present Pershing's name to the San Francisco convention.

It is known that General Pershing during the last week has been in conference with some of the leading factors in the democratic party, although there is no suggestion that he is actively approving or presenting the movement launched in his behalf.

Announcement of the movement to make General Pershing the democratic presidential nominee follows close upon the statement that Pershing would shortly retire from the active list in the army.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS SERVE ANOTHER YEAR

ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS MEMBERSHIP OF 1,237 IN APPLETON "Y" ASSOCIATION

All of the Y. M. C. A. directors were re-elected for another year, according to the report of the election committee presented at the meeting of the board of directors yesterday. The list includes F. J. Harwood, Judson G. Rosebush, James A. Wood and A. F. Tuttle. Officers are to be elected later.

The report of H. B. Frame, activities secretary, for the month of May showed the paid-up membership to be 1,235, a gain of 100 over 1919. That the association building is widely useful in community activities was shown in the report that 17 different organizations held a total of 21 sessions there during the month, including the St. Elizabeth hospital committees, Boy scouts, community survey, Woman's club and others. The report also showed that the dormitories house 73 men and that there is a large waiting list.

The report of G. F. Werner, general secretary, mentioned that the playground back of the Y. M. C. A. building had been refenced and two tennis courts prepared. Schrubbery has been planted on the corners to beautify the grounds. The association has purchased an electric sewing machine which will be used to mend torn linen, curtains and other equipment. Mention was also made that the five billiard tables are to be re-covered.

Eleven requests were received during May by ex-soldiers for educational aid under the Y. M. C. A. bonus arrangement. A fund which was not used for war purposes in France has been set aside to aid members who wish to attend colleges. Eight of the eleven have been granted aid from the war fund.

Mr. Werner also reported that a program of religious work for the coming year will soon be arranged at a conference to be held in Appleton. Both he and A. R. Eads attended a conference in Milwaukee recently at which plans along this line were suggested.

The summer training school and vacation periods were also arranged by the directors at the meeting. The house committee was authorized to add another employee to the cafeteria force.

HOT TAR IGNITES
VULCAN ST. BRIDGE

The fire department was called out late Wednesday afternoon when an overheated tar kettle standing on the Vulcan street bridge caught fire. The bridge platform was ignited but several streams of water extinguished the flames before any noticeable damage was done.

TWO CARS SLIGHTLY
DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Automobiles owned and driven by George Puth and Louis Erle were damaged slightly in a collision Tuesday evening on the New London road. Both were going north and Mr. Erle turned into a side road without realizing that the Puth car was close behind. Puth was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting the Erle car. Neither driver was hurt.

JOHNSON GROUP WINS BATTLE IN COMMITTEE ROOM

RESERVATIONISTS AGREE TO PLANS OMITTING DECLARATION FOR A LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

MAY ELIMINATE JOHNSON

Johnson's Plank May Be Fought Out On Floor of Convention In Hope of Destroying His Chance for Nomination.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—A surrender by the reservationist forces, headed by Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, today suddenly changed the aspect of the fight in the resolutions committee over the treaty plank, and in the opinion of party leaders, greatly reduced the danger of a contest on the floor of the convention.

The Crane forces in the sub-committee of the resolutions committee agreed to a plank which omitted the thing for which they have been battling—an affirmative declaration for ratification of the treaty with reservations.

As the full committee went into session this afternoon to go over the platform draft as agreed on by the sub-committee, Senator Smoot said he did not think there was any chance of getting the platform ready for the convention by four p. m. The planks will be made public, however, as fast as agreed on, it was learned.

Borah Group Wins.

The reservationists were given concessions by the Borah-Johnson group of "bitter-enders" in the matter of phraseology, but Senator Borah declared after the agreement that the principle of no affirmation in favor of ratification had been conceded.

The sub-committee was to submit its unanimous report on the treaty plank to the full resolutions committee early this afternoon. Leaders hoped, they said, that it would be accepted by the full committee.

When he learned of the action taken by the sub-committee, Senator Johnson, who had threatened to take the question to the convention if defeated in the committee, said:

Is Silent About Bolt.

"If the matter is settled as it has been reported, I'll probably not go to the convention. If it is not settled in that way, I will go to the convention."

"That disposes of the question of a bolt or third party?" Johnson was asked.

"I don't know anything about that," he replied.

"It disposes of the first attack upon the republican party by internationalism and international bankers; that is all. We'll try to meet the second with equal success."

See Political Observer's Pointed Out That the Apparent Defeat of the reservationists may have been a strategic move on the part of the Crane group to get the foreign relations plank onto the convention floor in its present form and then overwhelmingly defeat it, thus practically eliminating Johnson as a candidate.

The sub-committee adopted a Mexican plank without much discussion. The plank is a general affirmation of the report of Americans to protection and a pledge to see that they get it without committing the United States to any definite steps.

The full committee planned if possible to conclude its work in time to report the platform to the convention at 4 p. m.

Gross Presents Plank

Objecting to the subcommittee treaty plank, National Committeeman Gross, Wisconsin prepared the following plank as a substitute for presentation to the full committee: "We are opposed to the league of nations as a standing menace to peace and denounce the treaty as a violation of the pledges made to the world and a betrayal of the honor of the nation. It would make us a party to the enslavement of Egypt and India, the rape of China, and the ruthless oppression of Ireland. We would favor a league for peace composed of all the nations of the world, provided they were pledged by binding covenants with proper guarantees to abolish compulsory military service and provided further that the several nations mutually bind themselves to speedy disarmament, reducing land and naval forces of each nation to the strict requirements of a purely police and patrol service."

Gross plans to bring his plank up on the floor of the convention in case the resolutions committee refuse to adopt it. John Kelly and James Eads How, "millionaire hobo" asked for the franchise of all persons over 21 without the formality of registration, so they may vote wherever they happen to be on election day.

Wood and A. F. Tuttle. Officers are torn linen, curtains and other equipment. The plank, as agreed upon provides:

1.—Condemnation of the treaty

HIRAM IS KEEPING THEM ALL GUESSING IN G. O. P. MEETING

CALIFORNIANS' ATTITUDE IN LEAGUE PLANK IS AGAINST HIM PIZZAZZ POLITICIAN LEADERS

(By Rodney Bean)
Chicago.—Where Senator Hiram W. Johnson, California, will go and what he will do if the republican convention adopts a plank that fails to meet his demands in regard to the league of nations, is a question causing much speculation.

The risk of a bolt by Senator Johnson is again in the air. In view of his repeated statements that he can not accept a plank which gives recognition to the league of nations, a discussion of the platform situation on Wednesday Senator Johnson said he was dealing with a definite issue concerning the league of nations, and added that if the party leaders agreed on a plank that failed to destroy the Wilson League, he would "ask the national convention and the people of the United States to reject it."

But when he was asked whether his remark was based on the fact that he might be expected to do it, which if a plank was adopted which did not meet his views, or whether it was applicable only to the immediate situation, he said:

Will Not Bolt

Mr. Johnson made the statement in the past that he would not bolt the party, even if the decision of the convention was against him, and the consensus of opinion still is that he will hold to that course.

Some of the old time leaders like W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts are prepared to defy Johnson and adopt a league of nations plank which would endorse the league with the lodge reservations, but they are not in complete control of the situation, and others are urging caution and attempt at compromise.

One thing seems fairly certain: If it were not for the fight by Senators Johnson and Borah, Senator Lodge's reservation plank would undoubtedly have been agreed on before this.

Senator Johnson expressed the belief that a league of nations platform, which he could accept, would be adopted by the convention despite any attitude that the committee on resolutions might take. He was hopeful, he said, that the issue would not result in a fight on the floor of the convention.

Will Get Revenge

The senator gave notice on Wednesday that he would take measures of reprisal against any delegate pledged to his support by results of primary election, who did not "stick."

Speaking to newspaper correspondents, he declared that his opponents were using means of every kind to shake the allegiance of some of his supporters, mentioned "gold," and added that if any delegate broke away "I'll take his case to his people."

"The convention is tightening up more and more," the senator declared. "It will get to balloting on Friday, and as the time approaches my confidence increases."

"I think there'll be a number of ballots. We'll not endeavor to start with a tremendous number, but as the ballots are taken I think you'll observe later that we'll move along."

SHORT NOTES

Edmund Wagner of Wausau, is visiting relatives and friends here.

The Rev. Joseph Gluckstein of Laona, visited here Wednesday.

FRAT POLITICS IN LAWRENCE BARRED BY LATEST EDICT

PRESIDENT PLANTZ EMPOWERED TO DEAL WITH TROUBLE-SOME SITUATION IN COLLEGE LIFE

As the result of a conference of faculty members and fraternity and sorority representatives yesterday afternoon, action was taken to abolish fraternity and sorority politics at Lawrence college. Politics is always a disrupting force in college and university life and the action taken by Lawrence college is significant.

Unusual agitation has prevailed this spring among the students over the class elections which were said to have been controlled by group politics. The conference was called for the purpose of investigating the matter. The elections of the sophomore class for next year were particularly the subject of discussion, but it was decided to let the elections stand.

A resolution was adopted condemning politics. President Samuel Plantz was given the power to appoint a committee for dealing with the situation. Members of the Greek Letter council and the faculty committee on fraternities and sororities were appointed by him to act together on the committee.

The bringing together of the various groups of the college on such a question is expected to do much toward broadening and bettering college life. The committee appointed by the president will serve as a check on any unfairness among groups and will moreover serve to unite the groups.

ABOUT TOWN

KICKED BY HORSE—Gus Knoll, Maple Grove street, was quite severely injured Wednesday morning when he was kicked on the right knee by a horse while engaged in leveling the playing field in the new ball park on Second avenue. Mr. Knoll is unable to walk but it is not believed any bones were broken.

BERRIES RIPENING—Farmers predict that home-grown strawberries will be ready for the market within 10 days. The warm weather has advanced growth considerably. The berries have already grown to good size and are beginning to turn red. Most patches bear evidence of a large crop this year.

BAND CONCERT—The Cecilia 25-piece band of Kimberly gave an open air concert Wednesday evening at the village park. Throngs turned out to hear the attractive program. Concerts are to be given at frequent intervals during the summer.

C. O. C. MEETING—A meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce is to be held Saturday noon in the French room of the Sherman house. Hugh G. Corbett, the new secretary, is to be present. He is expected to arrive some time Friday.

YOUNGER BOYS OF "Y" TO HAVE TENNIS TOURNEY

Arrangements are being made for a younger boys' tennis tournament at the Y. M. C. A. Among those so far enrolled are Walter Heidemann, Bert Fisher and Bernard Bonini. Places will be drawn tonight and the first game is to be played tomorrow. Only singles will be played.

CHANGE SWIMMING HOURS FOR BOYS AT Y. M. C. A.

A change has been made in the swimming schedule for older boys at the Y. M. C. A. The original plan permitted use of the tank from four to five o'clock Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. It is now permissible for all high school and working boys to use the tank every day from four to six o'clock.

St. Louis Safe Record
(By Mabel Abbott)
St. Louis, Mo.—Basing its claim on coroner's statistics, St. Louis announces that fewer people are run over by automobiles, hit by street or railway cars, or injured in factories, in that city, than in any other in the United States.

In 1901, according to a report issued by the St. Louis branch of the National Safety Council, St. Louis had 304,000 population; in 1919 it claims 322,000; in 1901 it had no automobiles; in 1919 it has 48,000. Yet there were fewer injuries in 1919 than in 1901.

The cities nearest to St. Louis record, it is said, are Cleveland, O., and Rochester, N. Y.

Systematic safety instruction in the schools and a school for commercial chauffeurs, have helped St. Louis to reach the proud position.

Roll the Table Cloth
In some of the domestic science schools the pupils are now taught to roll table cloths instead of folding them, since the folds in the linen are always the first to show wear. The cloths are ironed flat and rolled while being ironed. Start to roll them as soon as a half yard is ironed and keep the roll directly in front, turning it as fast as the ironing is done. Thick brown paper may be used if you have no regular roll. One clever woman who procured several mailing tubes placed them end to end and covered them with a fancy wall paper, pasting it on securely. This makes a firm foundation for the roll.

Warning
Never tell a girl that she is vice versa. If you do, she will think that it is up to her to giggle her way into your affections. Hot Springs Arkan. saw Thomas Cat.

The boys' division of the Y. M. C. A. is to close at nine o'clock evenings during the summer months instead of 10 o'clock.

REALTY TRANSFERS COMPLICATE WORK

CITY ASSESSORS FIND WORK IS INCREASED BECAUSE MUCH PROPERTY HAS CHANGED OWNERSHIP

City assessors have a vast amount of extra work this year on account of the number of real estate transfers. George Limpert, assessor of the Third and Fifth wards, has already recorded 227 in his district and expects that the number will be increased to 300 before he completes his work. In one block on Lorain street where there were only nine residences he found that six had changed hands.

The assessors are raising the assessed valuation of property about twenty per cent on account of the increase of value, and as that will reduce the rate of taxation, very little objection is being offered. The work of assessing the residence portion of the city will be completed in about ten days, after which time the three assessors will act together in assessing the manufacturing plants and College avenue property. The law requires them to complete the work by July 1, after which time the board of equalization will sit at the city hall for two weeks to hear complaints.

Was Taking No Chances

One of Lucy's friends was giving a little birthday party for the little boys and girls of the neighborhood, and of course the children were much excited about it, particularly as it was customary for each little boy to ask to take the little girl he was most proud of. Several days passed and no one asked Lucy. And then one afternoon she came home from school in great glee.

"Mother," she said, "I have asked Bobby to go to the party with me."

Mother was shocked. "You asked Bobby to go with you? Why, Lucy, that wasn't a very nice thing for you to do. Bobby might prefer to take some other little girl."

"Well, you know, mother," Lucy replied, "that's just what I was afraid of."

LAND IN BOVINA TO

COURT ORDERS FORECLOSURE
SALE OF 2,250 ACRES TO SAT-ISFY MORTGAGE HOLD-ERS

In his judgment in the case of the Central Wisconsin Trust company, trustee, against The Meadows company of Outagamie county which has just been filed with H. A. Shammone, clerk of the circuit court, Judge E. V. Werner has ordered the land sold either in parcels or in its entirety, and has also ordered that upon application of the plaintiff a receiver be appointed without further notice to any party connected with the action, and that the receiver shall be required to furnish such bond as the court shall name in its order of appointment.

On June 2, 1919, The Meadows company executed certain coupon bonds to the amount of $50,000, and Judge Werner states in his findings of fact that in order to secure the payment of the bonds the defendant company executed and delivered to the plaintiff as trustee for the bondholders of trust whereby it mortgaged to the plaintiff as trustee for the bondholders the property mentioned in the complaint and described in the trust deed.

Failed to Make Good

It was further provided in the mortgage or trust deed that The Meadows company should pay all taxes, assessments and governmental charges which should from time to time be imposed or levied upon the property conveyed by the trust deed, or upon any part thereof.

"I find that the defendant has failed and neglected to comply with the terms of said bonds and the condition of said trust deed," says Judge Werner, "and that no interest whatsoever has been paid or has been left with said trustee."

"I find that there is now due on said bonds as principal and interest $54,250," he said. "That no part of the mortgage premises constitutes a homestead, that the mortgaged premises consist of 2,250 acres of land situated in the town of Bovina; that said lands are for the most part reclaimed lands from which are due large assessments in the nature of drainage taxes; that said lands are subject to a prior mortgage on which there is now due approximately $20,000; that said lands are not worth in excess of $110,000 and are insufficient security for the mortgaged indebtedness."

Orders Foreclosure

In his conclusions of law, Judge Werner says:

"On motion of Mason & Stephens, plaintiffs attorneys, it is ordered and adjudged that judgment of foreclosure and sale of the mortgaged premises be rendered in this action; that sale be made subject to the lien of the first mortgage bonds and trust deed securing same; that said premises be offered for sale in parcels and that said property then be offered as a whole, and that it be sold in such manner as will bring the larger sum as consideration therefor; that the proceeds derived from the sale shall be applied as follows:

"To the payment of the costs, expenses, fees and other charges of such sale including the sheriff's fee and the sum of $100 due the trustee together with the sum of $1,500 due plaintiffs attorneys for services in leading up to this action, and to the payment of the costs and disbursements of this action as taxed and allowed as well as to the payment of all taxes, charges, assessments or liens prior to the lien of these presents, excepting any taxes, charges, assessments or other separate liens to which the sale shall have been made.

Bondholders Get Remainder

"Any surplus then remaining to the payment of the whole amount owing or unpaid on the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds secured hereby with interest at the rate of six percent per annum; and in case such proceeds shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon said bonds then to the payment of such principal and interest ratably according to the aggregate of such principal and interest and the accrued and unpaid interest without preference or priority of principal over interest or interest over principal or any installment of principal or interest over any other installment of principal or interest."

"Any surplus then remaining to the company, its successors or assigns, or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive the same."

"It is further ordered that on application of the plaintiff a receiver shall be appointed in this action at any time after the entry of judgment and prior to said sale without further notice to any party in this action, said receiver to furnish such bond as shall be named by said court in its order appointing such receiver."

Decreases since 1910:

Butler, 19.2, or 6.6; Rolla 18.4, or 8.1; Salem, 25, or 1.4; Pike, 168, or 1.3.

Origin of Old Saying

If you will read up on the theological controversy between Arius and Athanasius over the nature of the second person in the Trinity you will get the plausible origin of the saying, "I don't care an iota." The one contended, using the Greek word, that Jesus was "homocousios," i. e., of the same nature as God, the other arguing that he was "homoiousios," that is, of similar nature. You will detect that the two Greek words differ only by an iota, the Greek name for their letter "i." So one fired off the riots in Byzantium and the prolonged discussions, contentedly said he did not care an iota.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

First Use of Ether

The first successful operation with ether was performed on Elisha H. Frost, who testified that a handkerchief saturated with the mysterious something discovered by Dr. Morton, was pressed to his nose and he became unconscious, awakening only to find that a diseased tooth had been extracted without his knowing anything about it. The drawing of Mr. Frost's tooth was the initial operation which preceded the demonstration at the Massachusetts general hospital October 16, 1846.

The Universal Color

The professional mixer of paints knows that fierce color discord can easily be created by a misplacing of green. But Nature never misplaces it. Even blue stands without trying, cheek by cheek with Nature's greens. Larkspur and lobelias go cheerily arm in arm with their respective foliage. Any rose of any tint or color is best set off by a green rose leaf. Every spring or fall color, pale or florid, will shade pleasantly into green on the very same leaf.

Paying on the Nail

An expression with which everyone is familiar is "paying on the nail," comes from the old method of settling accounts. In the early day of trade and commerce, merchants on change paid their debts by counting out their gold on to a copper "nail" or table, in the market-place. Written receipts are now almost universal, and these nails are no longer used; but two splendid specimens still remain among the most interesting treasures of the ancient port of Bristol. They are each about four feet high, shaped like a gigantic hour-glass. There they stand in the busy street, a lasting monument to the integrity of the old trading and merchant class, who paid on the nail and scorned a receipt.

New Process in Sculpture

A process for producing bas-reliefs by photography is the fruit of the invention of an Italian scientist. The basis of the invention is the property possessed by a film of chromium gelatin of swelling in proportion to the intensity of the light falling upon it. The swelling is greater with a low than with a high intensity, so that the light passing through a photographic negative produces upon a chromium gelatin plate a positive in distinct relief. The transparency of an ordinary negative, however, is not truly proportional to the relief of the original model, but by an ingenious automatic device involving double exposure this difficulty is avoided and a negative is obtained having its lights and shades correctly graded to produce the effect in bas-relief.

Get Habit of Promptness

It is a rare thing to find a really successful man who has not strongly developed a habit of promptness. A man who is constantly missing his train, who is late in keeping appointments, and who is habitually behind time in meeting his bills, or his paper at the bank creates a distrust in the minds of those who have dealings with him. The whole structure of the business world rests on principles, and promptness is one of the most important. A man who is not prompt in meeting his engagements cannot be relied upon no matter how well he means. Honesty of purpose alone will not compensate for tardiness.—Chicago Daily News.

Cooked and Uncooked Food.

Some one with an analytical turn of mind long ago differentiated man from other animals as "the cooking animal," and if we may believe the Green legend, it was Prometheus who stole fire from heaven with which man might cook. Yet so far as man's diet is concerned, if we may believe many writers on dietetics, Prometheus made a mistake and shortened the lives of men by making the kitchen range possible. They hold to the theory that man should, like the other animals, eat his food raw and uncooked, and then the span of his years would lengthen far beyond the three score and ten assigned to him by the psalmist, and centenarians would be as plentiful almost as blackberries in summer time.

No Iron Cross for Officers

Washington, too, had his iron crosses. However, they were merely badges known as badges of military merit. This decoration was established by Washington in 1781, and was conferred upon noncommissioned officers and soldiers for three years' good conduct, or for specially meritorious service. They entitled the wearer to pass and repass all guards and military posts as fully and amply as any commissioned officer whatever.

Fate of "First of the Tribunes."

On the eighth of October in 1354 Rienzi, the Italian patriot, who headed a revolution at Rome which overthrew the power of the aristocracy, was killed. He had been placed at the head of the Roman government under the title of tribune of the people. His success went to his head and he was finally killed in a riot which his ill-considered conduct had provoked.

Why the Dayton
Costs less to use

THE Dayton Bicycle is built for long service—for hard, steady, every-day riding. That's why the Dayton costs less to use—why it pays to buy a Dayton.

Dayton Bicycles have many points and features of superiority. At every point of stress or strain or wear, the Dayton is extra-reinforced, making it the real bicycle for service. More drop forgings are used in the Dayton than in other bicycles. Drop forgings cost more than stampings or castings, but wear longer and serve better.

Get the Dayton when you buy your bicycle. Any bicycle will save you time and save you steps. But the Dayton will save you the most! Let us show you the fine, new Dayton models now in stock—for men, women, boys and girls.

WITHOUT A BOSS

In session two days without a boss, the Republican national convention in Chicago, continued to run wild today. Not only are the bosses unable to control the nominations but they have thus far failed to exercise any real influence over the makers of the platform. The party's attitude on the league of nations, as expressed in its platform, started a row which for a time threatened to overshadow the nomination deadlock.

This unfettered and untrammelled condition of the Chicago assemblage is what makes it a good sporting proposition. That is why Murray Crane, veteran "pussy-footer," said: "All is chaos." The strong hand that drove the Republican steam roller of other days and held the convention to its predestined task is missing.

The party bosses of yesteryear have vanished. Of the Tom Platts, the Mat Quays, the Mark Hannas, the Boss Barnes and the Boies Penroses only the last name remains to conjure with and its owner is laid by the heels by illness in Philadelphia. There is no little group of suave or ruthless personages to get together in quiet deliberation and then proceed to shepherd the flock.

This is the day of the delegate, instructed or uninstructed, and it is up to him. The presidential primary has done much to eliminate the old-time boss, but it has installed no definite party leadership in its place and the concentrated wisdom of the delegates is supposed to supply that lack. They may choose platform and candidate wisely; they may make a mess of it, but certainly no more of a mess than has been made some times in the past by self-appointed directors. There will at least be the merit that the convention will really deliberate and that its nominee will be more truly the party's choice than has at times been the case.

THE GREAT SOLVENT

Much of the unrest due to underproduction and high prices may be charged to the vast army of nonproducers, in the opinion of many earnest students of conditions. Most men have occupations of some sort but not all are producers, using the word in its literal sense. Many believe there are many brokers, middlemen and commission agents whose energies could be directed into more useful channels. Every city is filled with sturdy youths, engaged as theater ushers, billiard room attendants, butlers or chauffeurs. Perhaps there are too many young men in offices, whose places could be filled quite as well by girls.

Benjamin Franklin tells of pausing at a street corner where a crowd was discussing the "badness of the times" and an old man with snowy locks was asked whether he did not think the heavy taxes would ruin the country.

"Friends," he replied, "the taxes are indeed very heavy and, if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them, but we have many others and much more grievous to some of us."

"We are taxed twice as much by our idleness, three times as much by our pride, and four times as much by our folly; and from these taxes the commissioners cannot ease or deliver us, by allowing an abatement. God helps them that helps themselves, as Poor Richard says."

During the war the slogan "Work or Fight" proved the salvation of America. Happily the fighting is over but work and thrift are needed as badly as then. In normal times we believe men should be free to pick and choose their own callings. But these times are not normal. In some respects they are almost as critical as the dark days in the spring of 1918 when the German flood was at its height.

Since the war not only America but the world seems to have had a relapse. This is but natural perhaps. But now the war is a year and a half behind us. We should be well on the road to recovery yet we have made scant progress.

Work, the great solver of so many problems, will solve America's problem today if it is properly directed. That conditions will improve in time there is no question. They always have and always will. And it is possible to effect an adjustment that will bring scant hardship to any of us.

SUGAR ON THE SIDING

The manner in which profiteering in sugar actually is accomplished is so little understood that many persons not at fault are blamed by the public. The retailer, for example, has little or nothing to do with the exorbitant prices. Neither has the wholesale grocer. Federal agents in Chicago, working under the district attorney, last week turned up a striking example of the real culprit.

Locating a large number of cars of sugar on railroad sidings, where they had been standing for several weeks, they secured the details of arrival, the ownership of the sugar, from whom the owners had bought it, and traced it back through several other ownerships. It had been right in these cars all the time. The agents made photographs of the cars to use as evidence, with the data, and had the owners and some previous owners arrested as profiteers.

The sugar had arrived in Chicago at a comparatively low price. The brokers who bought it from the refiners sold it at a profit to other brokers, who resold at a profit to others who also resold. In this way perhaps a dozen profits were taken on the sugar and still it was sealed in the cars with no chance of a wholesale grocer or retailer getting it to sell to the public. It was there simply for speculation. Of course, every broker who dealt in it took his risk of the price going down instead of up, but with the 1920 crop cornered, there was hardly a chance of prices dropping.

Today's Poem

EDMUND VANCE COOKE

AT COMMENCEMENT

Aye, Graduate, the gray-beards oft Have wagged their chins at you and scoffed And judged you all unfairly. Because your brow is unabashed, Because your dreams are all un-dashed, Because you face the world so debonairly. But now, by every truth and truth! We fix our faith on you and youth. We stake the world upon your soul. For who but you shall heal it whole? If your fresh faith in life be halted, There is no savor to be salted.

We who have ruled the world so well It trembles on the slopes of hell And knows no god but Mammon, We who have danced the dance of death And choked a generation's breath, We who have sowed the furrowed fields with famine.

As you come singing up the slope With laughter on the lips of hope, What can we do but, standing mute, Dab at our eyes and give salute? God save us, who have breathed derision Upon your brave-browed, fresh-souled vision!

THE RECKLESS PEDESTRIAN
Unquestionably the pedestrian has rights on the highways which the automobile driver must respect. But what good are rights to a careless or irresponsible driver runs you down? The fear or horror the average automobile driver has that he may injure some one grows greater with longer experience in driving. It is an axiom among automobile men that the speed boys on the road are those who have borrowed, rented or very recently acquired automobiles, and the owner or driver of experience is contented with a reasonable speed. With pedestrians, in many cases, this caution, which comes from experience, seems to be wanting.

If the pedestrian who strolls unconcernedly in front of an approaching automobile with a defiant look at the driver as much as to say "Run me down if you dare!" could realize the frail margin of safety he depends on, this practice would suddenly cease. Little he knows—his action proves he knows nothing about an automobile—little he knows that the slightest accidental pressure of the driver's foot on the accelerator may mean disaster in such a situation. Yet how often this little game is played by reckless pedestrians at busy corners.

If women out on a shopping lark could understand the risk they assume when ducking out from behind standing vehicles upon the driveway in order to cross the street hen-fashion—in a hurry to get on the other side—a great saving in life and limb might be effected. There are proper crossings where drivers expect and prepare against danger; but no driver can have his car always ready for instant halt in the middle of a block, and no law requires him to have such super-human control. Let the hen carry red flags or cackle a few times, or something, to warn all drivers they are about to dive through the traffic.

A great many people expose themselves thoughtlessly to serious injury by cutting a diagonal across intersecting streets, be there a traffic officer stationed there or not. A driver with a fair working knowledge of the higher mathematics, say, through differential calculus, is quite unable to alter his course to accommodate these blithe yokels. This is made clear by the careful measurements one often sees authorities taking after a driver has miscalculated and knocked a jay into the window of the corner store. These measurements establish beyond question that a pedestrian is a darn fool to meander all over the street that way.

Before one knows anything about automobiles there is a strong temptation to be cool and collected and take one's time in passing in front of an approaching machine driven by one who knows whether a gentleman, a drunk or a lunatic. But after one acquires a private noise of one's very own, then one certainly does step lively when anything on wheels approaches.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Gritting the Teeth

Please tell me the cause of gritting the teeth. How can it be cured? (B.)

ANSWER—Receipt of a letter written in lead pencil is one cause. Children in a nervous family often grit the teeth in sleep when there is some digestive disturbance or other temporary illness. Adults sometimes continue gritting the teeth in sleep long after a temporary irritation from had teeth or sore gums has subsided, an unconscious habit.

Temperature

Is a temperature of 97.8 at one time and normal another time a sign of heart trouble? (B. C.)

ANSWER—The body temperature shows no particular change with heart trouble. A normal person has a temperature a degree or more above and below "normal" each day. Don't monkey with the clinical thermometer—it will do you no good. Never take a temperature unless by direction of your physician for some special purpose.

A Woman's Word

I am wearing an abdominal belt for ptosis of the stomach. My physician says I must get fat before I can discontinue wearing it. Is that true? (E. C. A.)

ANSWER—One with ptosis generally needs to accumulate a natural pad or support of abdominal fat.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Thursday, June 13, 1895

Charles P. Wilson of Albany, N. Y., was calling on paper manufacturers.

Fred Wheeler resigned as substitute mail carrier and was succeeded by Joseph Grassberger.

James Garvey, an old veteran of Neenah, who formerly drove carriage for Dr. J. T. Reeve, died at his home at Neenah.

Mrs. E. E. Thompson and Miss Nettie Thompson left for Sault Ste Marie, where they were to spend the summer.

Many loads of evergreens were brought to town, to be used in the decoration of the streets for the saengerfest, June 15.

The contract for excavating for the foundation of William Tesch's new business block at the corner of Washington and Appleton streets was awarded to W. E. Caverts at 17 cents per cubic yard.

The billiard hall lately opened by J. W. Langlotz was closed on attachment issued in favor of the City Billiard Table company of Chicago which held a chattel mortgage of $1,200 on the tables and fixtures.

Two of the three paper machines at the mill of the Shattuck and Babcock company at De Pere were running. The third was shut down on account of low water.

The officers elected at the annual meeting of the Pulp Wood Supply company were: President, H. A. Frambach; vice president, W. Z. Stuart; treasurer, Herman Erb; secretary and manager, W. S. Taylor.

At a meeting of the common council the night previous, Grondela street was ordered paved from the Northwestern railway track north to Second avenue; College avenue from Union street east to Green Bay street; Durkee street from College avenue north to Pacific street; Union street from Washington to North; Washington street from Lawe to Rankin; and Second street from the iron bridge to Locust.

W. F. Winslow and Mrs. Emma Hill were married at the home of the bride at Janesville.

GETS YEAR FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

New Orleans.—Judge John Landry here sentenced James Pemberton to a year in jail for reckless automobile driving. It was shown that although the resulting accident caused only minor injuries to Charles Schneider, Pemberton, was "grossly careless." "It will be a warning," said the Judge.

THIEVES DRIVE AWAY IN AND WITH 1907

St. Paul.—Thieves, raided the front display window of an automobile agency here and took an 1900 automobile and $2000 worth of tires. Half the tires they left in the alley.

THE BOOK OF ANN
I Take Up the Battle for Ann Against Claude Ives
"For the honor of the Lorimers, you'll have to chaperon Ann and that interior decorator," Chrys insisted. "We will not tolerate a vulgar scandal in this clan."

I didn't remind her that her father had introduced a pretty lively skeleton into the Lorimer closet, once upon a time. She could have replied, of course, that the entire family had combined to protect the family name and had done so with great success. "For the honor of the family!" I repeated. "I suppose persons who marry into an organized family ought always to respect its standards and to abide by them—or else—keep out. But Ann never can understand that. She has lived in 'Bohemia' too long. I suppose."

"Bohemia" is a state of mind, my dear girl. Ann's mother lives in 'Bohemia,' I suppose, but she isn't Bohemian. She hasn't a sloppy mind, by any means."

"Ann's sloppy mind is making absolutely unnecessary trouble for you and me, and it isn't fair," I scolded. "Her mind takes in all the nonsense that decorator, Claude Ives, elaborates for her. Do you know that he has told her that her new home should be furnished in colors to harmonize with her 'aura'? It appears that we all trail, clouds of glory as we come, and we keep trailing them, as a sort of a psychic veil, through life. And if we are to be at our ease, in our homes, we must suit the color of our bath towels and a few other things to the invisible 'aura' we move in!"

"So that is how Mr. Ives achieves those unexplainable flirtations he has the reputation for carrying on with some of the handsomest women in town!"

"That's his secret, I guess. He has to make individual studies, Ann says. I suppose that's so he can discover the correct back-drop against which to show off the individuality."

"I see. No mortal mind could discover the exact shade of Ann's psychic veil just by seeing her once! Some dandy invention for a philanthropist, isn't it?"

"He has told Ann he never could discover the tinge of her soul in the presence of others!"

"Humph! I can divine her 'aura' without seeing him at all. 'Shining brass!' murmured Chrys.

"He has told her that the presence of a third person would confuse her or distract her so that her 'aura' wouldn't give off perceptible waves. As a third person would take his attention so that he couldn't receive a direct wireless about her color scheme!"

"And thus Ann accounts for those auto expeditions alone with Ives, and the trips to collectors of 'Rares and Antiques' and conferences in Ann's empty bungalow!" said Chrys sarcastically. "Jane, I guess this little war is now up to you!"

"Why isn't it your war, Chrys?" "Simply because Ann dislikes me so. I couldn't do a thing with her. She's always like a naughty child with me. Jane Lorimer, remember your pet theory—and go to it!"

I meditated a moment upon the bit of discipline which she recommended. My father had initiated it in my education. He believed that if an individual will force himself to perform some unwelcome task each day, he will crystallize the "hero-stuff" which is in him.

I remembered how I had shot up a U-boat crew, nursed Hun conspirators dying of the flu, piloted a runaway plane through the clouds, and survived famine in a secret cell of an ancient Mexican hacienda. Yet all these seemed gentle deeds compared with bearing Claude Ives when in search of his prey!

At length I managed to say: "Very well, Chrys! For the honor of the family—I'll Ann to stop here on her way to the milliners'."

Chrys went home and I went upstairs to don my street dress. I never did like to put a meddling finger in other people's affairs and I was indignant that a little simpleton like Ann should upset my theory. Moreover, I wasn't at all sure I could handle the affair.

Claude Ives was used to intrigue. I was not.

Democratic Convention Snap-Shots
The Story of 16 Nominations
By A. H. VANDENBERG

THE CONVENTION OF 1864
The Democratic National Convention of 1864 assembled in the midst of civil war—on August 29, at Chicago, with ex-Governor William Bigler of Pennsylvania as temporary chairman and Governor Horatio Seymour of New York as permanent chairman. The platform—adopted before the nominations were made, and largely prophesying what the ticket would be—declared that "after four years of failure to restore the Union by the experiment of war," the vital essential was that "immediate efforts seek a cessation of hostilities with a view to an ultimate convention of the states to the end that peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal union of the states." The platform declared the aim and object of the Democratic Party is "to preserve the Federal union and the rights of the states unimpaired."

Party sentiment was concentrated on General George B. McClellan for President long before the convention met; and one perfunctory roll-call gave him the designation. Before the result was announced, changes were made which gave McClellan 202½ votes to 28½ votes for Thomas H. Seymour. All the votes for Seymour came from Ohio, Indiana and the "border states." The McClellan nomination was made unanimous on motion of the famous "bitter ender," Vallandigham of Ohio.

Two ballots settled the Vice-Presidency. James Guthrie of Kentucky (who had been Douglas' chief opponent for the Presidential nomination in the regular convention of 1860) led on the first ballot in a field of eight candidates. On the second ballot, however, Guthrie's name was withdrawn, and this habit immediately became so contagious that George H. Pendleton of Ohio (who had been runner-up on the first ballot) was unanimously chosen.

McClellan and Pendleton were later defeated at the polls by Lincoln and Johnson.

To be continued tomorrow with the story of the Convention of 1868.

NEW MOTOR COMPANY BOOMS PRODUCTION TO MEET DEMANDS

TEN ENGINES ARE MADE DAILY
BY NEW COMPANY—MA-CHINES ARE SHIPPED ABROAD

Production on a large scale has been made possible by additional machinery in the plant of the Lake Motor company, which is operating in connection with the Appleton Machine company. New lathes, screw machines and other equipment have arrived within the last week or ten days and is being put in place. Production has already reached 10 motors a day and will be increased as conditions permit.

The plant was started early in the spring with a production of about three motors a day. Orders on the company's books will easily take care of a production of about 50 a day. It is hoped by officials of the company that this will be accomplished by January 1, 1921.

Perfecting a highly productive organization is one of the tasks the company had to meet. A dozen men are now employed and are being trained in specialized operations. Each will be given certain parts of the motor to work on with a view of developing speed and skill.

The most modern machines are being installed. Boring machines and lathes are used which produce machine parts of an accuracy of one thousandth of an inch. Practically the entire motor is made in the Appleton shop with the exception of the magneto and carburetor. The aluminum crank cases are cast at Oshkosh and the cylinders at another outside plant.

A shipment of 15 motors is to go to Italy this week for use on cycle cars. Another shipment is to go to England. The engines are similar to those used on motorcycles, but are used largely on tractors.

Plea for Small Rodents

Indiscriminate and inhuman killing of the small animals classed as rodents and regarded as vermin is condemned by the director of a western forestry experiment station. Observation gives evidence, he declares, that these little creatures, while responsible for a certain amount of destruction, are really helpful in the work of reforestation. A large percentage of the regrowth on burned areas sprouts from the seeds and nuts carefully hidden away by squirrels, mice, and chipmunks.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Sandalwood Fragrance

Sandalwood is a fragrant wood yielded by several species of trees growing in the East Indies and other tropical countries. Because of the fragrance of the wood insects will keep away from clothing stored in sandalwood chests. Once the wood has lost its fragrance, there is no known way of restoring it.

CHANGE IN WIFE IS MOST REMARKABLE

"I NEVER THOUGHT ANYBODY COULD IMPROVE SO FAST."
STATES FARMER

"Honestly, I believe Tanlac has added ten years to my wife's life, she looks and acts like a different person to what she did a few weeks ago," was the statement made the other day by Erbe Naef, a prosperous farmer living at Fredonia, Wis.

"For the past four years," he continued, "my wife has suffered a world of trouble from indigestion, nervousness, headaches and sleeplessness. No matter what she ate she didn't relish it, and she just had to force herself to eat to keep going. After every meal her heart would palpitate until she had to gasp for breath and she complained of gripping cramps in her stomach. Her nerves broke down and little ordinary noises would upset her completely. She was subject to headaches and dizzy spells and at times black spots came before her eyes. I don't believe she ever got a single night's sleep. Why, she was so miserable and restless she would get up and walk the floor trying to get relief. She lost strength until her complexion turned yellow and she was too weak to do a bit of the housework and I was worried over her condition."

"Well, sir, it just looked like as soon as she commenced taking Tanlac she began to get better, and while she has only taken three bottles she is already looking stronger and healthier than I had ever expected to see her again. It is remarkable how she has changed. I never thought it was possible for anybody to improve so fast. She is eating anything she wants and never suffers any bad affects at all. Her nerves are as steady as a clock and she is never bothered with headaches or dizzy spells any more. She sleeps like a child, her complexion has all cleared up and she is so much stronger she is now doing all her housework for the first time in years. My stomach also was all out of order and after eating I always suffered from cramps and gas and could never sleep well at night. But after seeing what Tanlac did for my wife I started taking it and now it has fixed me up fine and I am never troubled in any way whatever. My wife and myself are both grateful to Tanlac and will always keep it in our home."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt; F. O. Brown, Shiocton; Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek, H. E. Abend, Dale.

VICIOUS MULE GETS OWNER INTO TROUBLE

MAUD'S REFRACTORY DISPOSITION IS REASON FOR $350
DAMAGE SUIT IN MUNIC-IPAL COURT

A "vicious" mule which the owner is charged with having known to possess a "refractory and mischievous disposition" is to play a prominent part in a lawsuit which is to be tried before a jury in municipal court next Wednesday.

Charles DeBower of the town of Kaukauna is the owner of the animal. His premises are located near a farm belonging to the estate of John Meulemans of which Marie Meulemans Bolssens is the executrix.

In her complaint the plaintiff says that as such executrix she had in her possession belonging to the estate among other animals a certain mare on Feb. 22, 1920.

Knew Mule was Mean
"That the defendant at said time owned and kept a certain vicious mule well knowing him to be refractory and of mischievous disposition and accustomed to kick and bite other animals."

"That the defendant wilfully and negligently permitted said mule to wander off his premises onto the highway where he on Feb. 22, 1920, jumped over the plaintiff's gate and into the barnyard where the animals and stock of the decedent were kept by the plaintiff."

Asks $350 Damages
"That said animal after jumping over the gate kicked said mare causing her death for which plaintiff demands judgment in the sum of $350 and costs and disbursements of the action."

The case is to be tried before a county-wide jury which was selected by the attorneys in the case Wednesday.

Home of Great Scientist Gone
Etherton, the home of Dr. William T. Morton, who discovered ether in this historic building, hence the name, has been torn down. Daniel Webster, Rufus Coate, and other leading men of the nation were entertained there nearly a century ago. Dr. Morton worked out his ether theory in his home with dogs, cats, birds and insects, and himself named his home "Etherton" because his discovery meant so much to the medical profession. At one time the doctor tried his ether on his wife's pet dog which, as a result, slept so long that he thought he had killed the animal.

Surely in Hard Straits
A Chicago man who has a son at Cornell took occasion while on the way home from New York to stop off for the purpose of seeing how the boy was getting along. It happened to be just after the Cornell football team, which had undergone many humiliations that season, had been beaten by Colgate. "How are things going with the football team?" the father asked, pretending to be seeking information. "The Cornell football team!" the young man exclaimed with all the disgust that he could put into his tone. "It has been beaten by everything except the Colonial Dames!"

Perhaps This Is Worth Trying.
Should a child grow up bad in China the parents are said to have forgotten to bind its wrists—alluding thereby to a superstition that if a red cord is tied around an infant's wrists it cannot fail to grow up quiet and obedient.

MANITOWOC WINNER OF EAGLE TROPHY

APPLETON WELL REPRESENTED
IN EAGLE PARADE IN OSH-KOSH THIS AFTER-NOON

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Oshkosh.—Manitowoc won the silver trophy cup offered for largest increase in membership in local series of Eagles between October 1, 1919 and May 1, 1920. Announcement of the award was made Wednesday afternoon at the state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Manitowoc made a gain of 193 per cent; the membership Oct. 1, was 450 and 553 being initiated since that date.

Appleton was well represented in the parade this afternoon. Nearly 200 Eagles arrived here shortly after ten o'clock and marched to Moose hall where they prepared to take their place in line. The delegation was accompanied by the Ninth Regiment band. Milwaukee sent a special train with 500 Eagles over the Soo line, arriving during the morning. A. G. Koch, Appleton, state president, is presiding at all the business sessions.

Mayors of Wisconsin cities present are: Jess Willard, Plymouth; J. Austin Hawes, Appleton; A. G. McHenry, Oshkosh; William Armstrong, Racine; Daniel Hoan, Milwaukee.

Judge Al. H. Schmidt of Manitowoc is slated for election as state president at the closing session Thursday. The date and place of next meeting will be fixed by the executive committee at a later date. Motion pictures of Thursday's parade will be made and displayed among the aeries of the state. At Wednesday's session consideration was given to the organization of women auxiliaries in every city maintaining a local aerie.

DAILY DELIVERIES TO LAKE.
PETER THAAS & CO. adv.

May Be Life on Venus
From what we know of the surface conditions and climates of the various members of the solar system, Prof. Svante Arrhenius concludes that Venus is the only planet besides the earth where life is possible. Venus has a dense, warm atmosphere of high humidity. With everything dripping wet, life near the equator should be luxuriant though of low order on account of the uniform climate and lack of need for specialization; but nearer the poles the climate diversity is greater, suggesting a more varied development. Absence of any atmosphere makes life on Mercury and the moon impossible. Mars, too, must be uninhabitable with a temperature averaging about 37 degrees C. below zero and scarcely rising to freezing point even at noon on the equator, and its water supply is small.

C. O. F. COURT PLANS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

A membership drive of the Catholic Order of Foresters is to start within the next few days. It was decided at a regular meeting Tuesday evening. Eight teams are to make the canvases. It is planned to increase the membership sufficiently to keep the Appleton court the largest in the United States.

A committee was also appointed to work out details of a picnic to be held this summer.

Another committee was directed to arrange for removal to the new club house on Washington street.

Why Number Thirteen is Feared
The thirteen at table superstition, which has spread to thirteen of anything, is well-known. The origin of the prejudice against this number is usually supposed to be the fact that thirteen persons sat down at the Last Supper, after which occurred the most tragic event of the Christian era. Hesiod says it is unlucky to sow corn on the thirteenth of the first month, and an old Norse legend says that the twelve great divinities were dining at Valhalla when Loki, the god of discord, appeared, and a quarrel with Balder occurred in which Balder, the god of peace, was killed.

APPLETON DRIVER LOCATES NEW ROUTE

HIGHWAY IS SAID TO BE IN BAD SHAPE SOUTH OF FOND DU LAC NEW ROUTE IS BETTER

"Keep off from state highway 15 south of Fond du Lac" was the warning issued by an Appleton automobilist this morning to other motorists who are contemplating drives to Milwaukee. This driver suggested a much more desirable route and urged that it be followed.

The entire route is contained in the new state highway book which can be purchased in several places in Appleton.

Here is the new route:

Starting in Fond du Lac drive along east side of fair grounds to Eden over patrolled highway. Turn to left through Eden to Waucousta and keep on going toward New Castle. Just before reaching bridge near New Castle, or Campbellport, turn around red barn to left for Kewaskum. At Kewaskum take highway 55 to West Bend and then highway 68 to Saukville. In the last named city take highway 17 and 57, a double numbered route, into Milwaukee. It was suggested, however, that if the driver is desirous of making the beautiful lake shore drive, he turn left on highway 17 about eight miles from Milwaukee and continue it through Lake Park and Prospect avenue, into the heart of Milwaukee.

This driver avers that highway 15 will be in bad shape for at least two months longer. The road is exceedingly rough and destroys all pleasure of driving. The proposed route is about 8 miles longer but the driver can get into Milwaukee sooner by following it than by going over route 15.

TRADES COUNCIL PLANS PICNIC FOR LABOR DAY

The Trades and Labor Council at a meeting last night decided to hold a picnic on Labor day and a committee consisting of Fred Aylesworth, William Eggert, Raymond Schmidt, Helm Hussner and N. C. Glitz was appointed to determine advisability of a parade, and also to select a place where the picnic will be held.

The delegates so far selected by the different unions to attend the annual convention of Wisconsin Federation of Labor at La Crosse during the week of July 21 are: Trades and Labor Council, Fred Bachmann; bricklayers, John Horner; wire weavers, Otto Kott; pulp and sulphite workers, Charles Sample; carpenter, Fred Aylesworth; brewery workers, Michael Blietz; paper makers, George Schneider.

Aerial Searchlights

The farmers can advance only along with the city, not against it. Their earnings rise in proportion as these in the city earn more. That is the Alpha and Omega of agricultural policy. It is the crowd of laborers' children that make milk production pay. It is the city's meat eaters that buy the farmers' hogs. If business in the city is sick, the farmers' market is dead. If that business prospers, they both live. A great common breath breathes through the whole body of the people. It is this union of interest that liberalism represents. —Friedrich Naumann.

Inappropriately Named.

Christmas has furnished a name for some of the most desolate, tragic, malodorous, or otherwise unpleasant places on the face of the globe. Christmas sound lies amid the dismal, stormy horrors of Cape Horn, and Christmas Harbor is an equally cheerless spot in Kerguelen land. Of the three Christmas islands, one is a low atoll covered with guano; another lies off the ice-bound coast of Cape Breton, while the third is a forest-clad, unhealthy islet which possesses only 40 inhabitants. Mounds on the Cardigan coast are called Castell Nadolig, which means Christmas castle, and are said to be so named because the Welsh garrison of a castle that formerly stood there were surprised and massacred by Norse pirates while carousing on Christmas night.

"Whither Thou Goest."

With all the zest that editors assure us inspires them on the discovery of a new star in the literary firmament (What a fine phrase that is! Almost Biblical in its antiquity.) I thumbed the thin, resistant pages of my Bible, eager to come upon other tables of good. I found Jerehab, whose painted face long ago captured the imagination of mankind; Jephthah's daughter, pitifully mourning her virginity; Ruth, gleaner for Boaz, and speaking her immortal "Whither thou goest, I will go," to Naomi. And here I stopped to marvel that those words, even in this day of feminism rampant, the words a woman gladly swears to her lover, should in that far-off time have been spoken by a widow to her mother-in-law, between whom it is a matter of common expectation to find but little love. Who, I wonder, were the first lovers to seize upon their beauty and appropriate it? —Ann Branson Hilyard in North American Review.

In the summer months, during four months of which the sun never sets, the Eskimos live in tents. These are made of skins and are shaped somewhat like a boat out in half. In the rear of the tent the bed is spread, white in the wide, high, open front a smudge burns day and night. This smoke fire serves to drive away the mosquitoes, which are large and ferocious.

DEMPSEY'S WIFE MAY TESTIFY AGAINST HIM

By United Press Leased Wire
San Francisco.—The government scored against Jack Dempsey in the draft evasion trial of the heavy-weight champion today. Federal Judge Dooling ruled that Maxine Dempsey, former wife of the pugilist, may testify against Dempsey on matters not regarded as confidential.

Maxine was then called to the witness stand.

Walk in Faith
Have faith, then, oh you who suffer for the noble cause; ancestors of a truth which the world of today comprehends not; warriors in the sacred fight whom it yet stigmatizes with the name of rebels. Tomorrow, perhaps, this world, now incredulous or indifferent, will bow down before you in holy enthusiasm. Tomorrow victory will bless the banner of your crusade. Walk in faith and fear not. —Mazzini.

Making It Worse
Cornhill Magazine: Misprints are often a source of joy. Few are more pleasing than those enshrined in the ancient yarn—probably concocted—of the public banquet at which the speaker in proposing the toast of the army, equated with it the name of a distinguished general, whom he described, according to the printed account of the proceedings as a "bold, fearless, and intrepid." In the next issue of the paper in which the libel had appeared a note was inserted expressing regret for a typographical error, and explaining that the words should have been "battle-scared veteran."

Reward of Lost Minutes
In the dynamics of human affairs, said a learned man, "two qualities are essential to greatness—power and omnipotence. The former is often the fruit of the latter. A man or woman who is impressed with the value of time will make every minute count to such purpose that his or her life will inevitably bear the stamp of power." —Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Evolution of Clothes Terms
Dozens and dozens of clothes terms there are that indicate the evolution of clothes among our ancestors. Petticoat, which has been used as a not very respectful synonym for women in general, was a garment for men originally, and was the undercoat worn beneath the heavier overcoat. It was fairly long, and eventually the word came to be applied to the garments that evolved from this "petti" or small coat.

Gave Value to Rubber
Vulcanized rubber—and all rubber articles are now vulcanized—was first made at Woburn, Mass., by Charles Goodyear about 1844. He obtained his first patent in that year, after he had spent years in experimenting and had reduced his family to extreme poverty. Before 1844 rubber had been used for various purposes as a soft, sticky gum, but was of comparatively little value.

"Tragic Century."
The sixteenth century is called the "Tragic Century" on account of the great number of deaths occurring in it. The whole world was swept by plagues throughout the hundred years. Pestilence nearly depopulated China, and raged throughout Germany, Holland, Italy, Spain, England, France and Russia. The "sweating sickness," which broke out in England in 1556, caused the death of nearly one-half the population of the large cities of that country. The century was also noted for its many wars.

Costly Followers
Costly followers are not to be liked, lest while a man makes his train longer, he make his wings shorter. —Francis Bacon.

OBITUARY

MRS. HELEN KRIPPENE
Mrs. Helen Krippene, sister of Mrs. Mary Nitschke of Appleton, died Sunday night at her home in Oshkosh. She had been an invalid for 15 years. The decedent is survived by her husband, one son, three grandchildren, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in Oshkosh. Walter Nitschke, Appleton, was one of the pallbearers.

VIRGINIA BAUER.
Virginia, seventeen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Bauer, 1044 Appleton street, died of convulsions this morning following an attack of measles. She is survived by her parents and one brother, Clifford. The funeral will be held from the home of her parents at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. Services will be conducted by the Rev. T. J. Sauer.

For the King's Use
No other race of animals can show such a history as the black oxen that draw the funeral cars of dead Japanese emperors. They are of a special breed, and for centuries have been kept for the role of the imperial family. The cream-colored Hanoverian horses, reserved for the British royal family are nearly as famous, but none of these animals once bore the yoke of an alien and an enemy. When Napoleon occupied Hanover in 1804 he seized all the cream-colored horses in the royal stables and took them to Paris. The state carriage at his coronation was drawn by eight of these animals. This insult, as he regarded it, made George III so angry that he would not use the others of the breed that were stabled in London. Until the fall of Napoleon the state coach was always drawn by black horses when the king or his son, the prince regent, opened parliament.

Early Basket Makers.
The ancient islanders of Great Britain were famous basket makers and their wares were costly acquisitions in the palaces of Italy. They manufactured woven boats and covered them with the skins of wild animals; their huts were made of openwork made of osiers and their warriors' shields were constructed of reeds in a marvelously impervious manner.

Two Causes of "Eye Spots."
Spots before the eyes are of two kinds, namely floating and stationary. The former is a normal effect from natural imperfections of the eye. The stationary spots are a symptom of cataract, or opacity of the crystalline lens.

Ready Acquiescence.
"You haven't explained how you happened to have these chickens in your possession," said a magistrate sternly to the prisoner. "I've tried to think, yer worship. Give me time," replied the prisoner. "I will. Fourteen days!"

Pale-tine's Rainfall.
Palestine has a remarkable advantage in putting through engineering projects to store the rainfall, which occurs five months of the year, because the Mediterranean is at a higher level than the main water basins of the country, the River Jordan and the lakes, and therefore little of the total rainfall runs off directly to the sea.

The Court of Lions is the most famous court of the Alhambra, in Spain. It takes its name from 12 white marble lions, from whose mouths streams of water flowed into a central alabaster basin.

WOOD IS NEW HEAD OF MINISTERIAL SOCIETY

Dr. J. B. Wood, pastor of the First Methodist church, was elected president of the Appleton Ministerial association at the annual meeting Monday morning at the Y. M. C. A. The Rev. H. J. Drogkamp was named vice president and the Rev. G. E. Stickney, secretary.

A paper on "Mistaken Conceptions of Religion" was given by Prof. J. H. Parley. Plans were made for open air services to be held Sunday evening, during the summer. The place has not been decided.

ELOPING IS A GOULD HABIT!

MRS.
CARROLL L.
WAINWRIGHT

New York.—The love of romance seems so deeply implanted in the Gould family that their elope whether there is need for elopement or not. George Jay Gould, the father and two sons, Kingdon and George Jay, Jr., eloped, and now the daughter—Miss Edith C. Gould, 18—has eloped with C. L. Wainwright, 21, rich art student. When other members of the family learned of the elopement they said "they always did like young Wainwright."

Real Poetry

In Norman Macleod's early days in Glasgow, he says in his memoirs, a poet and local celebrity named Dugald M— was frequently ridiculed by the other young men for his bombastic productions and his self-importance. Once at a party dinner a toast was proposed, coupled with the name of Dugald M— in terms, disparaging to the poetical art. When Dugald M— arose in defense, "I will tell you, gentlemen," he shouted, "what poetry is! Poetry is the language of the tempest! when it roars it is the crashing of the waves of the ocean tossing their foaming crests under the lash of the hurricane!—they are, speak in poetry. Poetry, sir, poetry was the voice in which the Almighty thundered through the awful peaks of Sinai, and I myself, sir, have published five volumes of poetry, and the last, in its third edition."

One on the Naturalist

Theodore Watts says Charles Rowley in his book, "Fifty Years of Work Without Wages," tells a good story against himself. A nature enthusiast, he was climbing Snowdon and overtook an old gypsy woman. He began to dilate upon the sublimity of the scenery in somewhat gushing phrases. The woman paid no attention to him. Provoked by her irresponsiveness, he said: "You don't seem to care for this magnificent scenery?" She took the pipe from her mouth and delivered this settler: "I ennes it; I don't jabber."

Takes No Chance on Bad Luck

Many peoples believe that ill luck will be the portion of a child who cuts its upper teeth first, and there are one or two African tribes who so firmly believe this that in order to spare the child a life of misery, they promptly kill any child whose upper teeth appear first. Another tribe sees bad fortune for every one in twins and avoids it by slaying them all.

Rabbit Dinner.

While touring in northern Wisconsin one night two big rabbits ran into the road in front of my machine. They were blinded by the bright light from my headlights, and it was an easy matter to get out and catch them both. I had a good dinner the next day.—Exchange.

The Apple.

Eve corrupted Adam with it. William Tell set a world's record with it. The small boy risked a whipping for it. The American people extracted the juice of it. Nature put a kick in it. Congress took the joy out of it. —Evening Post.

Enough for Her.

"Do you think, dearest, that you could manage on my salary?" the fond youth asked.

"Why, yes, I think I could, darling," the sweet girl responded, "but how in the world would you get along?"—Home Sector.

The Reason

"Nervous exhaustion so prevalent just now."
"Yes, since the automobile came in people are a lot more run down."

A discovery of French chemists is that by coating the interior of containers with aluminum paint the accumulation of deposits which come from hard water may be prevented.—Journal of Industrial Engineering Chemistry.

Solomon Predicted It

In the book of Tobit, chapter 5, verse 16, there is this statement—"and the young man's dog went along with them." In one of the published accounts of the Tuesday election in New York city there is this statement "the women went to the voting booths and, in many instances, their dogs went along with them." As King Solomon remarked, there isn't anything new under the sun.—Baltimore American.

Spanish-American War

Spain declared war against the United States April 24, 1898. The first American army of invasion of Cuba, under General Shafter, sailed from Tampa, la., June 14, and landed at Santiago, Cuba, June 23. The battle between the "Rough Riders" and the Spanish forces occurred on June 1 and the surrender of Santiago on July 16.

Imitation Eastern Carpets

Carpets now sold as exact reproductions of rare eastern rugs are a tribute to modern art. Some of the most notable reproductions are those of the seventeenth century coronation carpet made for the shah of Persia, the Khorassan rug and the famous carpet manufactured for the Shakh Ismail.

A Modern Improvement.

Hotel Porter.—That bird in Room 18 says the roof leaked in on him when it rained last night. Proprietor.—Good. That means two francs extra for a shower bath.—La Baionnette (Paris).

When "Leap Year" Leaped.

The name "leap year" is supposed to have grown out of King Henry's proclamation making February 28 and 29 legally one day. Father Time being conceived of as leaping the gap from the 28th day of February to the first day of March.

Power in Nobility

Be noble, and it is well with you. The storms of life will not frighten you. Safe and serene, you shall wander through the paths of night, and misfortune itself can only exalt the majesty of your soul.—From Rae's "Life of Beethoven."

No-Mistake Check

A California man is the patentee of a baggage check made in two parts, which must be placed together to form its number, preventing mistakes caused by checks with similar numbers.

Mean Revenge

"That couple were very unpopular in the office, but we got even with them when they were married."
"What did you do?"
"Sent them a cellarette."

In the Crowd

"Ye're in a pickle in this jam," shrilled the first old lady.
"Heaven preserve us," moaned the other.

There was a large attendance at the class day exercises last evening at St. Mary school. An attractive program of recitations and musical numbers was rendered by the pupils.

Ant Farmers.

There are ants in Nicaragua that cultivate minute mushrooms for food in their underground homes by form-

We do not pretend to have a monopoly on all the good things in outer wear, but our specialization in correct and becoming fashions naturally offers those who seek distinction, unusual opportunities to express their individuality.

Dr. Copeland, health commissioner of New York City, has the following to say concerning the relation of modern fashions to the health of women:

"Fashionable clothes, somehow, enable women to get much more out of life. It is largely a matter of 'mental attitude.' Most women when unfashionably, however sensibly dressed suffer something akin to mental anguish. It is as if they were pitted by their own sex and ignored by the other. All the world seems against them."

And the knack of knowing how to dress fashionably and economically lies in merely knowing where to buy.

SEES MIGHTY FUTURE FOR NORTHERN FARMS

BADGER FARM COMMISSIONER SAYS FARM PRODUCTION CAN BE INCREASED 82 PER CENT

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Milwaukee.—Wisconsin's agricultural output can be increased 82 per cent!

This is the statement made by Commissioner C. P. Norgard, head of the State Department of Agriculture before the Congressional Deep Waterways Commission in Milwaukee Wednesday. Another important declaration by Mr. Norgard was that if the European immigrants, who come mostly from rural districts could be landed without charge at ports on the great lakes close to the big agricultural areas that most need them, it would go far to solving the problem of the Americanization of immigrants.

"We base our estimate of the potential output of state," said Mr. Norgard, "upon the immense area of yet unopened and untitled land in the northern portion of the state, and the increase that will follow its opening. By opening up our great unsettled area in upper Wisconsin our plowland area can be increased 82 per cent, and our agricultural product proportionately. Fifty years ago the farming frontier of the country was practically at the Mississippi River. Since then the vast prairies, plains and Pacific coast areas have been brought under cultivation and large cities have been built.

"Now the surplus population is headed for the unoccupied agricultural lands in the middle western states. An average of 2,000 families are settling in the northern counties of Wisconsin annually. Along two lines of railroad up there already this year 1,120 families have settled. Who dare say that in a generation or two we shall not have as big an agricultural output from those northern counties as we now have from the southern. Today our agricultural product in terms of shipment is equal to 1938 cargoes of 5,000 tons each of which we can export 471 cargoes. When our now unopened land is yielding our product will equal 3,853 cargoes of which we can export 951."

MARINETTE TO HAVE MORE PUBLIC PARKS

Marinette.—The park commission, under the new parking ordinance, closed a deal for the purchase of the plot of ground in the east end of the city and work started Tuesday on converting it into a public recreation ground. A band stand and other features are to be established. The commission is working on plans for playgrounds and parks for other sections of the city, and has already established public tennis courts, a ball ground and football field at the new athletic park. A large riverside park on Stephenson Isle is one of the new recreation centers planned.

MAY LOCATE LARGE CIGAR FACTORY AT WATERTOWN

Watertown.—The location here of the largest cigar factory in this state is predicted by Senator Charles Mulberger, who recently returned from Pittsburgh. Senator Mulberger is in touch with a manufacturer of a well known brand of cigars who wishes to locate a branch factory in some Wisconsin town and prophesies that his home town will stand an excellent chance of securing this factory.

BABY FALLS INTO PAIL OF HOT WATER; DIES

Darlington.—The 3-year-old son of William Ritter of Fayette township fell into a pail of scalding water and was so severely burned that he died. The water had been heated to wash the milk cans, and was set under the reservoir for a few moments while the father turned to another task.

WOULD CONSERVE MINK AND MUSKRAT IN STATE

Merrill.—Twenty-five citizens of Lincoln county have petitioned the state conservation commission at Madison for a closed season on mink and muskrat in 1920 and 1921.

During the trapping season, which closed in April, large numbers of these animals were captured. High prices for their hides spurred many to engage in trapping. As a result the supply was greatly diminished.

It is the view of leading sportsmen that if a closed season is not put on, few of these animals will be left in the state.

A hearing to be held at the courthouse, June 24, will be attended by leading sportsmen. At this time, the question of asking a closed season on deer will be brought up.

ESSAY CONTEST WON BY SHEROYAN GIRL

Sheroogan.—Miss Jeanette Manville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manville, and a senior at the Sheroogan high school, graduating with the class of 1920, was one of the high ten selected in the state-wide essay contest conducted by the Wisconsin civil service commission.

LANDINGSLAGET HOLDS ANNUAL CONVENTION

In attendance are 150 delegates from various points in Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Wisconsin. P. Stromme, Madison, Wis., was the principal speaker at a social session Tuesday night. H. A. M. Steen, Northfield, Wis., is president of the Landingslaget.

NOTE GIVEN FOR HEART BALM IS WORTHLESS

Watertown.—Charles Westenberg will not have to pay $3,500 heart balm or any other sum to Miss Ella Bhend, if the ruling of Judge Martin Lueck is upheld. Miss Bhend sued Westenberg for alleged breach of promise and got judgment for $3,500 damages, for which the defendant gave a note. Later he instituted proceedings to have the note declared void and the jury in returning a decision on sections of the verdict, held that the first note was void because the young woman had no grounds for receiving $3,500 because of no consideration, but asked that the defendant be required to pay $1,500. Because this decision reverses itself, Judge Lueck set aside the verdict of the jury.

"Paradise Regained" on Cabbage

It is said that John Milton often used to have nothing but a few olives for dinner, and we do not wonder so much since learning this that he so seldom wrote anything cheerful. We do not think we could write anything cheerful ourselves after dining on a few olives, though we have done it not infrequently on boiled cabbage and prune whip.—Ohio State Journal.

JUDGE MAKES CUT IN DAMAGE CASE VERDICT

Oshkosh.—In the personal injury case of Henry E. Martin vs. Walker D. Hines, as agent of the United States government during federal administration of the railroads, a jury verdict for $7,500 has been reduced to $2,000 by Judge G. W. Burnell in circuit court. In his opinion, Judge Burnell said:

"In the judgment of the court this verdict of $7,500 is simply preposterous under the evidence. It is as much, or more, than is usually allowed for the loss of an arm or leg. The plaintiff complains of nervousness, inability to sleep and general weakness. It is not made any more severe or dangerous by putting it into Greek or Latin by experts and calling it 'neurosis' or 'insomnia'. I do not believe these damages would stand for a minute in the supreme court."

Martin was injured while employed on the Soo line, in 1915. A motor handcar on which he was riding was thrown from the track when it crashed with an auto at a grade crossing.

The College of Hawaii has added a four-year course in sugar technology.

PRIVATE BANKERS ARE INVOLVED IN FARM BANK TIUP

LETTER FROM MORTGAGE BANKERS' ASSOCIATION OFFICIAL SHOWS WHERE LITIGATION STARTED

By Belle S. Roberts
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Washington.—Big private banking interests, anxious to kill the Farm Loan Act, through which farmers have been getting loans at reasonable interest, are responsible for the fact that Federal Land Banks are out of commission and that farmers cannot get loans.

This is their own statement of the case:

W. M. Heckler, chairman of the membership committee of the Farm Mortgage Bankers' Association, an organization of private bankers who were hit by the passage of the Federal Farm Loan Act, claims that the Bankers' Association is "directly responsible for the Federal Land Bank and the Joint Stock Land Bank not being in operation today."

Tied Up in Court

The farm loan act is tied up in litigation in the U. S. Supreme Court. Its constitutionality has been questioned by a suit instituted by these banking interests. The Supreme Court has ordered the case reargued. It cannot be decided until next fall, at the earliest. By thus tying up the act, the bankers have assured rich pickings for themselves, because the farmers cannot get loans from the government. Also, they have assured higher prices of foodstuffs because the city consumer will have to pay for the high interest rates charged the farmers.

A confidential letter from W. M. Heckler, of the firm of Wells-Dickey Co., of Minneapolis, reveals the inside workings of the Farm Mortgage Bankers' Association. Here is the letter:

"We enclose herein special Bulletin No. 66, issued by the Farm Mortgage Bankers' Association of America. This is only one of a series of bulletins which are issued from time to time, sometimes three and four times a month to the members of the association, and shows the way the wind is blowing each time.

"You will note the remarks in regard to the Supreme Court in the matter of passing on the constitutionality of the tax exemption feature of the Land Bank bonds. Most of us believe that the Supreme Court did not care to render their decision, which I interpret to be unfavorable to the Land Banks but favorable to us, until after the next election. At any rate, the Farm Mortgage Bankers' Association, I think is directly responsible for the Federal Land Bank and the Joint Stock Land Bank not being in operation today and not being able to operate until sometime next year.

"I am wondering if this fact alone is not worth considerable more to you than the small fee which we charge for membership in the association, and, as a matter of fact, don't you think that the association is entitled to support, both financial and moral, in their work for the betterment of farm mortgage dealers? If you agree with me, will you kindly fill out the enclosed application and send it to me with your check for $25, which will pay your fee until Sept. 1? The check should be made payable to E. D. Chassey, secretary and treasurer, but send it to me."

The first railway was built for the British coal mines. It was a horse car track devised and used early in the sixteenth century.

THREE NEW PLAYERS WITH BRANDT TEAM IN SUNDAY'S GAME

"RED" MURPHY, FAHLSTROM AND DAY ARE EXPECTED TO FACE KIMBERLY TEAM HERE

Several new faces will appear in the Appleton lineup when the team goes into the field to battle Kimberly at Brandt park Sunday afternoon. Red Murphy, star pitcher with Appleton club of the Wisconsin-Illinois league, will occupy one of the outfield positions, and Day, well known Appleton catcher, will work behind the bat. It is probable that Fahlstrom, Appleton, will also chase flies in the outfield, relieving Harry Sylvester who will play on first base.

This shake-up is expected to give the team the balance necessary to trim the Kimberly villagers. Errors have been responsible for nearly all of Appleton's defeats — errors of head as well as of hands.

The acquisition of Murphy is regarded as important. The tow-headed Irishman is an exceptional hitter as well as a good outfielder. His pitching arm is gone but he still has a mighty good wing for the far field position.

Fahlstrom is an excellent pitcher and in addition can hit the ball hard. He has had considerable experience in the outfield and is expected to strengthen the team.

Day went in as a pinch hitter last Sunday's game and clouted out a single. He is a good catcher and will work behind the bat as O'Connor is unable to come. Noel will officiate on the mound.

Provisions are being made for seating at least 600 fans in the ball park. The grandstand will seat 400 and bleachers along the first and third base lines will seat 200 more. The park is being put in excellent condition for the scrap.

It is rumored that Kimberly has secured the services of a St. Paul man for the mound for Sunday. If that is true a real battle is in prospect.

WHITE PLAGUE BATTLERS WILL MEET IN RACINE

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Racine, Wis.—Representatives of tuberculosis sanatoria from all parts of Wisconsin, including superintendents, trustees, doctors, nurses and county board members, will be in attendance at the Midyear Sanatorium Conference to be held at Sunny Rest sanatorium, near here, Friday, June 11. An important feature of the meeting will be the discussion of the program of the American Sanatorium Association to grade all tuberculosis sanatoria in the country, according to their equipment, management, location and medical supervision. The object of the discussion is to familiarize sanatorium heads with the requirements of the association and give them an opportunity to bring their institutions up to this standard, if they have not already done so, before the work of grading begins in Wisconsin.

Dr. J. W. Coon, president of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association and superintendent of River Pines sanatorium, Stevens Point, will preside at the meeting, and will also speak on "Location Plans and Equipment of Sanatoria."

A dinner at the Elk's club, Racine, at which the County Medical society and other Racine county people, interested in tuberculosis and health, will be guests, will be held Friday night, closing the conference.

DON'T FORGET THE DANCE JUNE 11TH AT THE PRINCESS HALL, HAMPSHIRE CORNER. AD- MISSION 50c. 6-8, 9, 10

Paris Under Fire
After the first day and a half of the long distance bombardment of Paris an officer of the Red Cross went out to get his lunch. Paris had just traversed one disquieting moment—a moment of mystery. Ordered to its cellars in broad daylight, it could not, in spite of periodic explosions, discern a single "gotha" in the sky or bear a single French defensive shot. But the news of the long-range gun was now abroad; already the boulevard was in movement, and the old woman who sells newspapers at the kiosk opposite the Madeleine was in her place.

"Good morning, madame. I haven't heard that famous gun of yours for at least half an hour—have you?"
"What would you? It has to have it lunch!"

GIANTS WALLOP RING HARD AND SCORE WIN

NEW YORK.—The New York Nationals made it two straight from Cincinnati on Wednesday, winning the second game, 6 to 4. Ring was hit hard, including home runs by Kauff and Young, and triples by Kauff and Kelly. Nehf pitched good ball except in the seventh, when the world champions lunched five hits with a tumble by Young for four runs. Score: Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 4 0-4
New York.....2 0 1 2 1 0 0-6

PHILLIES TAKE TWO STRAIGHT FROM CUBS

PHILADELPHIA.—Philadelphia won its second straight game from Chicago on Wednesday, 2 to 1, by being the visitors' eighth consecutive defeat. Smith had a shade the better of a pitchers' battle with Tyler. Robertson's home run counted Chicago's lone tally. Score: Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 1 0-1
Philadelphia.....0 1 0 1 0 0 0-2

DODGERS EVEN SERIES WITH CARDINALS, 3-2

BROOKLYN.—Brooklyn evened the series with St. Louis on Wednesday, winning, 3 to 2. A muff of an easy fly by Smith with two out left Miller score the winning run from second in the seventh. A rumor that Horneby had been sold to the New York Giants for $150,000 was denied by Branch Rickey. Score: St. Louis.....0 0 0 2 0 0 0-2 to center. Cooney beat out a bunt and Huhn was safe on Smith's error, and Mostil and Cooney scored.

Hauer singled to center in the fourth and went to second on Smith's sacrifice. Gaston beat out an infield hit, Hauer going to third, Lutzke sent a sacrifice fly to Russell, Hauer scoring.
Butler started the fifth with a double and went to third on a wild pitch. Huhn singled to left, Butler scoring.
The Brewers layed off for an inning with the scoring and started again in the seventh when Mostil went to second after Rehg dropped his long fly. He took third on a passed ball. Mostil scored on Hauer's sacrifice fly. The bases were filled when Hauer sent his long fly to Zwilling. P. Smith went out on a short hit to Whitehouse.
The eighth inning was another round of pleasure for the Brewer batters and things went smooth for them. Gaston, first up, was safe on Schreder's fumble and scored when Mostil tripled to left. Cooney then singled to left, scoring Mostil. It looked like another score when Whitehouse tried to catch Cooney off first and threw the ball to right field. Cooney took second and died when J. Smith threw out Butler.
Then again in the ninth the Brewers scored another to make it good measure for the day. Huhn up first singled to center and scored when Zwilling let the ball get away.

NEW YORK CHILDREN BOOST HOME TOWN

MAYOR HAWES INVITED TO SPEND SUMMER AMONG SCENIC WONDERS OF CANANDAIGUA

School children of Finger Lake region in Northern New York have adopted a novel plan for conducting an advertising campaign setting forth the advantages in a scenic way which that part of the state has to offer tourists. In a letter which Mayor J. A. Hawes received this morning from Pauline E. Barber of Canandaigua, New York, the writer says:

"Fifteen thousand school children of sixteen different cities in the Finger Lake Region are writing to ask the mayors of different cities to come to the Finger Lakes for the summer months. I am writing you and if you will please publish a statement in your daily paper saying you have received an invitation and send the clipping of it to me I will be very glad as each school is striving to see which can get the most clippings."

Seneca Lake is the largest and deepest lake of the Finger group. It is thirty-seven miles long, four miles wide and its depth is about six hundred and thirty feet. Its shores are very picturesque. It is navigated by steamers and is connected with the Barge canal by several small canals.

Inclosed in the letter was an illustrated folder which contained a map of the lake region and information concerning the different automobile trails.

BOY NEGRO SAVES TRAIN THROUGH MOVIE LESSON

(Special to Post-Crescent)
By Jack Carberry

Waco, Texas—Eleven-year-old Roy Kennedy is the hero of Texas today. His courage, presence of mind and a little red sweater saved the lives of 250 passengers, including 125 delegates to the Republican state convention, bound for San Antonio over the M. & T. road.

Torrential rains had fallen. The boy, anxious to watch Donahue Creek rise, left his home at Bartlett. There he discovered 600 feet of trackage had been washed away.

Less than a mile away he saw the approaching flyer. He knew the train would plunge into 12 feet of water unless it could be stopped.

Pulling off his little red sweater the boy raced up the track. Frantically he waved the danger signal. The engineer thought the lad was playing. But when the speeding train came within a few feet of the boy who still remained on the track, his screams unheard, the man in the cab flung on the brakes.

The lad jumped just as the train came within a few feet of him. The engine stopped just seven feet from where the trackage had been washed away.

Passengers swarmed about the boy, making up a purse which totaled $5,000. The railroad announced it would add its check for $1,000 to the fund.

"Gosh, I didn't do nuthin," Roy told the passengers who crowded about him. "I saw a guy do that in a movie, that's how I knowed what to do."

The youthful hero was later confined to his bed, physicians explaining the fear he felt as the engine kept coming toward him without stopping had caused a nervous breakdown.

It was Springer's afternoon off and he thought he would take the children for a little outing.
"My dear," he said, approaching his wife, "suppose we take the children to the zoo today?"
"Why, Will, you promised to take them to mother's."
"All right, if it's all the same to the children."

Avoid the Cynic.
If you want to retain a wholesome view of life, if you want to hold your faith in mankind, if you want to have enduring peace of mind, keep away from cynics. Should any such be among your acquaintances, give them a wide berth. They may be bright, clever, entertaining people. Cynics often are. But they are poisonous people.—Chicago News.

Dog Highly Prized in Alaska.
Nowhere in the world has the dog such unrestricted right of way as in Alaska. In winter, when more than 600,000 square miles of territory are sealed up in solid ice, dogs are almost the sole means of getting from place to place—in fact, they seem necessary to life. The aristocrats of Arctic dog life are the mail teams in the service of the United States government.

Alkali In Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mul-sified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonsful will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mul-sified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

More And More Reports From Appleton People

For 30 years Doan's Kidney Pills have been helping kidney sufferers. More than 300,000 people in the United States alone have publicly told their own townpeople how Doan's have benefited them. Scores of users right here at home tell how this old, time-tried kidney remedy rid them of kidney backache, dizzy spells, daily headaches, kidney irregularities and other annoying forms of kidney weakness. Read this home testimony; it should be convincing proof. Ask your neighbor.

Another Appleton Case
Mrs. Fred Maack, 657 Fair St., says: "I used to have bad spells of backache. Pains would catch me across the small of my back and make me lame. There was a steady pain in my back all the time and my kidneys acted irregularly. Headaches bothered me, too. An attack like this was always quickly relieved by using Doan's Kidney Pills. They benefited me in every way, so I think highly of them."

CONSUMER HAS TOO MUCH FEAR OF POOR QUALITY, GOOD
SHOES NEED 'COST
ONLY $4, $5, OR $6

(Special to Post-Crescent)
New York—In an interview with George F. Johnson, shoe king, whose factories at Johnson City, N. Y., manufacture 85,000 pairs of shoes a day, Sophie Irene Loeb, in the New York Evening World, gives some interesting information.

$4, $5 or $6
"The average person should not pay more than $4, $5, or $6 for a pair of shoes," Johnson is quoted as saying. "There is no reason why good shoes should bring the outrageous prices they do."

"The best shoe, except for fancy trimmings, is $7.50. The trouble with the consumer is that he thinks that if he does not pay a high price for an article it is not good. This is the fallacy that has brought about a wave of extravagance that has reached the superlative degree. I believe the people will wake up."

Up to Consumer
"First and last I am for moderate-priced shoes. We have been soaring on a wave of luxury and the average individual does not seem to want to stop it when he has the power to do so himself."

"You cannot make this too emphatic. It is a process of education but the average consumer must teach himself."

Considerateness Considered.
"Have I not been a considerate wife?" she asked, reproachfully.
"Considerate!" he exclaimed bitterly. "In what way?"
"Has there ever been a night when you were out late that I haven't left the light burning for you?"
"And you call that being considerate?" You have—but who pays the bills?"

Words of Comfort
He (after the proposal)—Now, I've got to speak to your father, and I know he dislikes me.

WHEN A WOMAN IS NERVOUS—WORRIED
The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells.

Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

All druggists. Liquid or tablets.

YPSILANTI, MICH.—"Motherhood left me with a bad case of feminine trouble. The doctor did not seem to help me. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it gave me relief at once. I took just a few bottles and was completely cured. I have wonderful faith in Dr. Pierce's medicine for women."—MRS. LUTHER JONES, 614 S. Hamilton Street.

APPLETON MOOSE TO ATTEND CONVENTION

SUPREME LODGE MEETING IS TO BE HELD IN MOOSEHEART LATTER PART OF THIS MONTH

Three members of Appleton Lodge of Royal Order of Moose are planning to attend the 32nd annual supreme lodge convention of the Moose at Mooseheart, Ill., June 20 to 26. M. J. O'Connor was elected official delegate at a meeting Tuesday evening. R. J. Zuehlke, alternate, also will attend. Frank Foreman will make his fifth visit to Mooseheart during the convention. It is possible that others will also attend.

It is believed that at least 1,500 delegates from every state in the union, and from Mexico, Canada and Australia will attend the big meeting. Speakers of international prominence are on the program.

A feature of the program will be ceremonies in connection with laying cornerstones of four new buildings in the Moose home. One of these buildings is a church to be used by all denominations represented in the order. A new home for the aged is also to be constructed.

Other features include graduation exercises of the class of 1920 from Mooseheart schools; band concerts by the student band; ritualistic contests for degree teams, athletic contests and two legion frolics. Prizes aggregating $4,800 will be given to winners in the contests.

A special rate of one and one third round trip fare will be given delegates to the convention. These tickets are good for return until July 1.

State convention of Moose is to be held in Wausau July 30 and 31. It is probable several members of the local lodge will attend that meeting.

Chinese New Year Customs.

On the occasion of the new year, the Chinese exchange the greeting, "Kung Hai Fat Tsay," meaning "Congratulations; may you collect wealth." The word "tsing," meaning "hail," is repeated by them numerous times. During the celebration of the new year, all secret societies and guilds, whose rivalry is often very bitter, declare a "Truce of the Gods," when no man must attack his brother. This is generally respected by both the hunter and the hunted, who are glad of a relief.

The Humble Part.
